INDUSTRY ANNOUNCEMENT & INVITATION TO KICK-OFF EVENT

The 1st Annual...

NO BOUNDARIES: CROSS-CULTURAL FILM FESTIVAL

- KICK-OFF PARTY & SCREENING: January 29th, 6:30 p.m.
- INAUGURAL FILM FESTIVAL: April 3 & 4 at multiple venues.

The first L.A. film festival devoted to cross-cultural communication and collaboration, the NO BOUNDARIES Film Festival, kicks off Thursday, JANUARY 29th with a reception and special screening of CROSSING (Keurosing), South Korea's official 2008 Oscar submission.

The First Annual NO BOUNDARIES Film Festival is presented by the Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles (KCCLA), the South East European Film Festival (SEE Festival), and The Goethe-Institut Los Angeles. As a unique effort to bring cultures from all over the globe to present the best of international film showcasing issues of human rights and border issues, NO BOUNDARIES seeks to expand every year to invite new cultural partners to the presenting table, and to showcase different regions all over the globe.

The NO BOUNDARIES hosted kick-off reception and screening will be held Jan. 29th, 6:30 p.m. at the Korean Cultural Center at 5505 Wilshire (Wilshire & Dunsmuir, 4 blocks west of La Brea). Reception begins with wine and hors d'oeuvres at 6:30 p.m., South Korea's Oscar submission CROSSING begins at 7:30.

This invitation entitles you + 1 to attend as a guest.

PLEASE RSVP BY JANUARY 27 via email to josh@kccla.org.

Please do indicate if you are bringing a guest. Space is extremely limited.

MORE ABOUT THE "NO BOUNDARIES" FILM FESTIVAL

Presented in its kick-off year by founding partners Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles; the South East European Film Festival; and the Goethe-Institut of L.A., NO BOUNDARIES is a unique cross-cultural endeavor dedicated to international relations and human dignity through the power of film.

Hyo Hyuk Choi, Cinema & Entertainment Manager of KCCLA, says "Whether we see them or not, there are boundaries everywhere. The biggest boundary of all is the lack of Interest. Our mission at NO BOUNDARIES is true and simple, let's make sure to see each other."

Vera Mijojlic, director of SEE Fest, says "There is something of essence that happens when crossing the cultural divide, a transformational experience that gives new life to art and unlocks previously untapped human potential. NO

BOUNDARIES gives a name to this patch of common ground where we begin learning about each other. It is the starting point of this journey, and we hope that other Los Angeles-based cultural organizations and groups will join us as we continue our trek.

NO BOUNDARIES Inaugural Film Festival will run April 3rd and 4th in Los Angeles at multiple venues. Please be sure to look for future announcements.

JOIN US January 29th 6:30 p.m. at the Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles at 5505 Wilshire (near La Brea).
